SPRING BEACH - Editorial, D.C.J.

The halfway mark is now. At a point between the ice of winter and the warm sun of Spring the beach begins to waken to the new season. We fortunate dwellers on the edge of a continent can observe this change almost daily. As salt is the spice of our table, the sea is the spice of our life. Soon this stretch of sand will host a horde of vacationers who will bask in warmth and cool in its waters. Year round, however, the sea's edge belongs to us and some of the most interesting times are in the quiet of the transition seasons. The early spring is one of the best. The healing tide repairs the ravages of the winter's storms and the whole new cycle begins anew.

said that the County Selectmen Association of which he is chairman is very concerned with these preliminary cherry sheet figures and is investigating the matter very actively.

Because of the unknowns connected with these figures and the impact on the town's total budget, Selectmen will recommend that the Town Meeting which must be held April 6, according to town by-law, be convened and then adjourned until May (tentatively the 11th).

SEWER COMMISSIONERS

A discussion was held on the article to appear in the warrant to make the Water Commissioners Sewer Commissioners also. The Selectmen have been Sewer Commissioners by town vote which allowed them to negotiate and act during the planning and construction phase of the system. The Selectmen agreed that the Water Commissioners have done an effective operating job and that the time had come to make the switch. They will recommend the change to the town meeting and if voted favorably the change would take place in 1982.

SHERYL HERMAN - GERMAN BIBLE, OVER 100 YEARS OLD.

FAMILY TREASURE EXHIBIT

Mrs. Pond's second grade class at Rochester Memorial School held a Family Treasure exhibit on Thursday afternoon. This event was part of a social studies unit on the family to help the children gain an understanding of their family lineage. Parents unearthed family treasures that some of their children never knew existed.

There were antique pictures of great, great grandparents, carnival glass dishes, an antique China doll's dish set, a Christening gown that had been handed down and worn for generations, antique puzzles, a German Bible and a leather wallet 27 years old, just to name a few.

The children had great fun sharing their very own family treasures.

Enthusiasm has been building at Old Hammondtown School as students prepare for the P.T.C. sponsored "Cinderella". Many pupils (and adult volunteers as well) have been laboring with props, scenery, and backstage assistance without the recognition of being leading performers. We wish we could photograph all of them.

Others have been publicizing the play within the school building by entering the class-

St. Rita's Woman's Club

A St. Patrick's celebration took place at the March meeting of St. Rita's Catholic Woman's Club during which Father John Steakem, the pastor, showed films taken in Ireland along with a very interesting talk. Mary McLean played a humorous recording she had brought from Ireland and records of Irish songs were played. Delicious Irish bread, scones, and shamrock cookies with Irish coffee were provided by Eleanor Cushing, Kay Sweeney and Cecile LaRochelle.

It was voted to donate $25. to the Toma program to be held at Old Rochester Regional High School, and a check was given to Kay Nowak to use for a luncheon party at McDonalds for the Disabled Veterans at Kendrick House during the Summer.

Peg Johnson explained some of the details of the Parish Renewal Program held the past weekend and encouraged members to take part in one of the remaining three weekend programs.

Members present signed the Happy Easter greeting card being sent to Pope John Paul II from the Parish.

Elaine DeSorcy, the president, advised that the next meeting would be held at 7:30 at the Centre on April 20th at which time there will be a speaker on Nutrition.

Father Steakem concluded the program with a prayer.

Seniors' Day at Museum

The Children's Museum/Museum Outdoors property has long been famous for the many flowering bulbs planted by Raymond Pettey, who was born here on his family's farm in 1894 and died here in 1970. Mr. Pettey planted thousands of imported spring flowering bulbs which not only became part of his business, but also created an arboretum here in North Dartmouth. Today, the naturalized bulbs of Scilla Siberica and Chionodoza Luciline or "Glory of the Snow", have spread throughout the woodland floor creating an ever-increasing Dutch blue carpet. Motorists stop their cars in curious amazement, thinking perhaps there is a new lake or pond beneath the trees reflecting the color of the day. Their blooming lasts only three weeks and then vanishes for another year.

DICK GAMACHE
O.R.R. SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Voters of Mattapoisett:

20 years as a summer resident and the past 12 years as a permanent resident have given me an insight to the educational needs of our community. The challenge of the 80's, in education, will be to provide the best quality education possible within the limits imposed by mandates such as Proposition 2 1/2 and our own ability to pay.

As a concerned parent, I want the best education for my own children. As a businessman, I recognize that educational costs must be kept within budget limitations. Striking the appropriate balance will not be easy, but it must be done.

Scott, Richard, Sharon and Kevin

As your representative to the O.R.R. School Committee, I would hope to bring not only my 10 years' experience as a Certified Public Accountant and Corporate Controller to bear on the hard budget issues, but also my concern as a parent to bear on the equally difficult issue of "quality education". I am convinced that both challenges can be met, and I earnestly solicit your support on April 8th.

Yours very truly,

Dick Gamache

Richard B. Young, 18 Ned's Point Rd. | William F. Hubbard, 29 Neck Rd. | Joan Braden, 11 Crooks Way | Larry & Diane Brewster, 3 Crooks Way

Mr. Pettey also experimented with creating new and varied species of hybrid narcissus. These bright daffodils of yellow, white and pink and other narcissus of varied sizes and color combinations usually bloom in late April, early May.

In appreciation of the flowers, the Museum would like to invite the Senior Citizen groups here to the Museum on April 15th to enjoy this Spring phenomenon. The seniors may spend the afternoon strolling through the trails and enjoying the sights at their leisure. Museum staff will be on hand to answer questions on the flowers and history of the Pettey property and on the Children's Museum. There will be a minimal fee for refreshments served in the pavilion. It will not be possible for us to provide transportation, but Seniors who can provide their own are welcome to come around 1:00 p.m. and stay until 4:30. We hope that the conditions will be right for the flowers to be at their peak and we hope April showers, although much

"FLING INTO SPRING" FASHION SHOW

The "Fling Into Spring" fashion show sponsored by the Wareham Business and Professional Women's Club, will be held on April 5th at 2 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Wareham. This benefit show is to raise money for the purchase of a rescue boat for the Wareham Fire Department.

Chairpersons Mrs. Corine Hambly and Mrs. John Kelenosy state that the department needs a larger boat to accommodate more rescue divers and more equipment. The Wareham Fire Department not only helps the Wareham area in their searches, but also in mutual aid situations in other towns. The department is called on more searches each year.

The fashion show will have local male and female models, and fashions will be provided by the Puritan Clothing Store of Hyannis.

A barbershop quartet, ballet and belly dancers, a batonist and organ music by Adi Row will all be part of the entertainment for the afternoon. Refreshments will be served and there will be a number of raffles.

for Saturday, April 11.

The State was built in 1923 by the Zeitz Brothers, who dubbed the theatre the Zeiterion and described it as "a first-class theatre, the one thing New Bedford sorely needs". The opening night vaudeville performance, starring George Jessel and the Courtney sisters, apparently caused quite a stir in the city, and the Zeiterion was acclaimed "a masterpiece of theatrical architecture".

But times have been hard for the State, and its present owners contemplate tearing it down to make parking space for tour buses. WHALE, however, feels the theatre has unquestionable value both historically and in terms of the ultimate fate of New Bedford's downtown.

So, WHALE is buying time for the old theatre -- buying time, buying architectural/rehabilitation studies, buying marketing advice in hopes that the State can become a performing arts center for southeastern Massachusetts. Time and planning take money, of course, and so do the theatre's heat, taxes, insurance and maintenance which WHALE has also taken on. Last year, the WHALE auction raised a little more than $20,000 for exterior renovations of the Robeson House; this year they hope to do even better for the State.

It follows, then, that the auction be held

This year's auctioneers will also be new. Newport's Mike Cochran, described as a spirited, country-style auctioneer, has volunteered his services. He will open up the bidding at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 11. For those who like to scrutinize before buying WHALE plans a Friday afternoon wine and champagne preview.

Traditionally, WHALE has relied on individuals and the business community to donate auctionables, and already the interesting and the priceless are turning up: the main sheet block from Cup Defender Rainbow; an 18' mahogany flagpole; an Empire-style couch; a ship in a bottle; 50 gallons of gas; a commodious garden bench; old tools and brass nautical instruments; a goldsmith's bench; a whale's tooth; a venerable grinding wheel; fine glass and china by the barrel; a mammoth granite millstone. There are also two cars: a 1969 Targa 911 E Porsche and 1974 Lincoln-Continental Mark IV.

How all these and more will fit on stage at the State remains to be seen, but with their usual verve the auction committee is going ahead with plans for the Saturday auction and the gala Friday preview.

Stamp Show

SEAPEX XVIII, the annual stamp show in New Bedford, will be held this year on April 4 and 5 at the New Bedford High School gymnasium.

A competitive exhibit of scores of frames of stamps and covers will be augmented by a 12-dealer bourse, catering to the needs of the beginning and advanced collector. In addition, the United Nations Post Office and the U.S. Postal Service will be selling stamps and postal stationery at face value.

Show hours are noon to 6 p.m. Saturday, April 4, and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, April 5. In addition, an auction of 104 lots of stamps, covers and philatelic supplies is planned for 10 a.m. Sunday, with viewing beginning at 9.

This year's show cachet features a reproduction of a stampless cover from the whaleman's port of call at Russell, New Zealand, to New Bedford in 1861.

The cover was sent by Capt. William P. Briggs of the New Bedford whaleship Sophia Thornton to the ship's owner and bears a variety of colorful postmarks and rate markings. The special show cancellation will feature a whaling ship.

ST. LUKE'S TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE IN REHABILITATIVE SERVICES

Blanche Perry, Director of Rehabilitative Service at St. Luke's Hospital, invites the public to an Open House on Friday, April 3, from noon to 5 p.m.

In the past year rehabilitative services were provided to over 15,000 patients by the Hospital's multidisciplinary team of six physical therapists, an occupational therapist, a speech pathologist and a consulting audiologist. The Open House offers the community an opportunity to see the equipment available for evaluating and developing skills in all four areas of rehabilitation. Slides of treatments and exercises used to help patients back toward a normal routine will also be shown.

This is one of the ways St. Luke's is attempting to increase the awareness of this year, 1981, declared the International Year of Disabled Persons by the U.N.

The Walking Tour program began three years ago, sponsored jointly by Waterfront Historic Area League (W.H.A.L.E.) and the Old Dartmouth Historical Society (Whaling Museum). Tours are offered daily throughout the summer, leaving at frequent intervals from the Museum entrance. Over the past three summers, more than 15,000 local and out-of-town visitors have been escorted by these guides, each of whom volunteers one day a week.

The training program will begin on Monday, April 27, meeting from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on consecutive Mondays through June 15th.

Some of the subjects covered in the course will be History, Architectural Styles, Revitalization, Tourism and Current Happenings on the Waterfront. Speakers will include Richard Kugler, Director of the Museum; Max Ferro, Architect; John Bullard, Agent of W.H.A.L.E.; and Barry Darwell, Director, Office of Tourism

Last year's guides included both men and women, of all ages, who shared a love of history, people and walking. Come to the planning session Monday, April 13, and become a part of this active group.

Soloists for the cantata include soprano Marianne Adams, alto Alice Long, baritone Charles Franko, and bass Gary Soares. Franko will also perform the male alto solo in Bernstein's work. Violinist Ann Danis of Fall River is concertmaster of the orchestra.

Chichester Psalms, a moving work written in Hebrew, was commissioned for the 1965 festival at Chichester Cathedral in Sussex, England. The Bach cantata was written for Easter and celebrates the triumph of life over death.

Union Hospital

After several months of deliberation by local health planning committees, the Massachusetts Public Health Council approved Union Hospital's entire Determination of Need application Tuesday, March 24th.

The Council's endorsement came after presentations by local and state officials in support of the hospital's current services. Among the officials who spoke at the meeting were Senator William Q. (Biff) MacLean, State Representatives Roger R. (Sparky) Goyette, Dennis Lawrence, David R. Nelson, Walter Silveira, Jr. and Roger L. Tougas; New Bedford City Councillors Paul Barton and William Saltzman; Rochester Selectman George Bare; Executive Secretary Alfred E. Portway of the Acushnet Board of Selectmen.

Senator MacLean staunchly defended all of Union's services, but focused on the issue of hottest debate: the endorsement of the hospital's intensive care unit. "New Bedford is a revitalized city. We need two hospitals; we need two complete hospitals, both with an intensive care unit."

The hospital's original application called for 5 ICU beds. The Council in voting for 4, however, noted that the available floor space in the ICU unit was more suited for the lower number.
